

The Filipino American Association of Pittsburgh

presents

"Paraiso: Tatlong Kwento ng Pag-asa (Three Stories of Hope)" is a Gawad Kalinga movie composed of three unique stories weaved into one powerful work of art—a perfect way of letting its viewers taste heroism in the big screen.

Reel time: 5:15 PM

Sunday, September 9, 2007

Southside Works Cinema

(across from the Cheesecake Factory)

General Admission Tickets : $10 per person

THE GAWAD KALINGA MOVIE PARAISO:

Tatlong Kwento ng Pag-Asa (Paradise: Three Stories of Hope)

The title of the movie Paraiso meaning Paradise is simply what Gawad Kalinga has been to the masses as the grassroots movement is radically rebuilding the country one family at a time.

The GK Trilogy:

Umiyak Man Ang Langit (Even If Heaven Cries) is based on Jocelyn's life experiences who lost loved ones in the mudslides of St. Bernard, S. Leyte. The story captures the pain, the internal struggles and the healing that takes place in all of us once faced with life-changing events.

Ang Kapatid Kong Si Elvis (My Brother Elvis) is a story, on a lighter note, centered on a boy who ate pebbles to satisfy his hunger and a GK volunteer's family who adopted him as their own. The story captures the challenges and rewards of being involved with GK.

Marie is a story based on how a tragic loss can be turned into a living legacy and a new beginning. Marie Rose Abad perished in the twin tower tragedy of 9/11. Rudy Abad honors his wife with a living legacy.

ALL PROCEEDS BENEFIT GAWAD KALINGA'S FAAP VILLAGE & THE PNR FUND

For more information, contact Tina Purpura at justinapurpura@aol.com or call 412-344-6041.